Church of the Nativity—The Rev. Mr. Chapin became Rector of this parish seven years ago today. The sermon tomorrow morning will have reference to the event. The services will be Litany and Holy Communion. Evening services, with sermon, will be resumed at 7:30. At this service, and during the coming year leaflets containing evening prayer will be furnished to strangers who are always welcome.

The Woman's Missionary Society of the M. E. Church, South, will give an open session on next Monday evening at the church, beginning at 7:30 o'clock. An interesting program has been prepared. Miss Bruce, who has recently returned from Brazil, will be present. All are invited.

The usual services at 10:45 a. m. tomorrow at the Church of the Disciples, conducted by the Pastor. Sunday-school at 9:30 a. m. Y. P. S. C. E. at 7 p. m. Morning subject: "Behold! the hour cometh, yea, it is come, that ye shall be scattered to your own, and shall leave me alone, and yet I am not alone, because the Father is with me." Why alone? No night services. Night service will be resumed the second Sunday in September at 7:30. Will preach tomorrow at 4 p. m. near Helena, under the shade of the trees, at the home of William Luttrell. Subject: "From Human and Animal Sacrifice to the Golden Rule."

The oldest inhabitant of the Sardin neighborhood never saw such a drouth. Drinking water has to be carried for miles.

Train No. 1 on the C. and O. went down yesterday six hours late with eleven coaches, being delayed by a small freight wreck near Cotton Hill, W. Va.

Charlie Fleming of Augusta suicided by the morphine route at Carlsbad yesterday. His remains arrived last night over the L. and N. and were taken to Augusta this morning.

YESTERDAY'S GAME

Was Lost by Wadsworth's and Bruner's Errors.

It was the banner crowd of the season yesterday that saw the locals, by two great big costly errors, present Lexington with the game.

Our boys scored an earned run in the second and had the game well in hand. The visitors had four goose eggs to their credit when the awful crash came in the fifth. The locals had three runs.

The first batter up for Lexington touched off a double into left. Deisel missed a hot one. A sacrifice advanced the runners to second and third. Then a sky rocket went to center. Bruner got under it and let it fall. A groan went up from the crowd and two runs went in. Then Wadsworth took a hand in the give-away business, so Henry presented them with a score.

The visitors hit the ball hard in the eighth, took the lead and were never headed.

Chard pitched for Maysville and while he was hit hard in spots, was effective at critical times. Taylor's circus catch of a line drive that had a three base mark on it and Deisel's work with the stick for the Maysville and Berte's batting for Lexington were the features of the game.

The following is the score:

Time—One hour and fifty minutes. Umpires—Nolin and Sutherland.

NOTES.

Berte is a bird.
Can Jackie hit?
Chard and Deisel wouldn't sign.
Taylor was all through yesterday's game.

The Lexington boys wouldn't consent to stay over and play off the tie game. Hill lost Thursday's game at short. Wadsworth, assisted by Bruner, lost it yesterday.

Redmon, Lexington's center fielder, won the foot race easy in ten and a half. Cox and Taylor went part of the way and quit.

Fred Frank leaves this morning for his home at Callettsburg to spend Sunday. He hopes to be able to secure Ashland for two games here next week.

WIDENING.

Cleveland Again Antagonizes the Senate.

His Recess Appointments Will Be Bitterly Opposed.

In Nearly Every Case These Appointments Are in Direct Opposition to the Recommendation of the Senator Interested—A Southerner's Opinion.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 1.—Not satisfied with expressing his contempt for the democratic managers of the senate in the letters furnished to the public, President Cleveland has emphasized his desire for a continuation of an estrangement between his senatorial advisers and himself by making a whole lot of recess appointments. In nearly every case these appointments are in direct opposition to the recommendation of the senator interested. When a senator has not been ignored a democratic representative in the house has been slapped in the face. The temper of President Cleveland must have been aroused to the highest pitch to make him thus court a fight with a body that has already shown him its power in determining the tariff question.

The calculation of President Cleveland, notwithstanding his rage, has probably been that he can secure support enough from the republicans to have his recess nominations confirmed. This hope will be destroyed. The whole senate will be arrayed against the administration, and the republicans will act with that esprit de corps which is always aroused among members when an attack is made upon a body with indiscriminate recklessness.

Senator Hill will be able, as one of the post office committee, to hold up or reject every nomination that President Cleveland has made in his state. This right is accorded to him by what is known as senatorial courtesy. Senator Gorman, with the consciousness of his power over the executive, will marshal his forces again and crush Cleveland in the powerful jaws of that dreaded machine known as the executive session.

A southern democratic senator, who is detained in the city by personal affairs, told your correspondent Friday that the senate would administer such a whaling to President Cleveland next winter as would penetrate even his pachydermatous hide. "We have had enough of this man's insolence," said this distinguished senator, "and we propose to teach him that he is but one branch of the government."

The postmasters nominated by President Cleveland during the recess will therefore hold office only so long as the senators wish. When Mr. Hill or Mr. Gorman, or any other senator, desires to wipe out any of the recess appointees, they will do so, and Mr. Cleveland will have the privilege of sending in new names or of leaving the offices vacant.

Drowned in the Dead of Night.

UVALDE, Tex., Sept. 1.—A terrible catastrophe befell this thriving town Thursday night, and Friday there was mourning in many households. The calamity was entirely unexpected. The treacherous Leona river, swollen to a raging torrent by recent rains, rushed without a moment's warning down upon the town, submerging and wrecking many houses and drowning a number of people. In this arid section such destructiveness by the elements has never before been chronicled. While reports are incomplete regarding loss of life, it was estimated Friday night that no less than 20 or 25 persons have been drowned, and the losses to property of all kinds will exceed $2,000,000.

NEARLY A REALITY.

The Beheading Scene in an Amateur Theatre at Gallipolis.

GALLIPOLIS, O., Sept. 1.—At an amateur performance here one of the participants, who was assigned the role of executioner, in the beheading scene, was absent, and another man was substituted. When he came on the stage with a real ax, his face had a chalky appearance, and his knees played a spirited tattoo. The doomed player, Frank Canaday, thought there was a screw loose somewhere, and rolled off the block just as the ax came down with a thud. The "sub" missed the offender's head about one-quarter of an inch, and barely missed carrying out the beheading act in earnest.

Sensational Suicide.

COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 1.—Dun Williams, a nephew of Ex-Senator Thurman, committed suicide at the state house Friday. Worried into insanity by illness, he jumped from the window in the flag room to the pavement, forty-three feet below. He died in the hospital a few hours later.

Captured at Last.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Sept. 1.—J. L. Bay, wanted at Little Rock, Ark., to answer charges of grand larceny and embezzlement to an amount ranging from $14,000 to $100,000, was captured here Friday, after having for two years evaded the Arkansas authorities.

Jolly Fishermen.

BUZZARD'S BAY, Mass., Sept. 1.—President Cleveland and Actor Joseph Jefferson spent Friday and late into the evening fishing for black bass at White Island Pond in Wareham and enjoyed a good catch.

Pool Law Constitutional.

BROOKLYN, Sept. 1.—In the Wynn case, brought to test the constitutionality of the Saxton pool law, Justice Gaynor Friday morning decided that the law is constitutional.

Called to His Door and Shot.

KOKOMO, Ind., Sept. 1.—James Gregory, a rich bachelor living at Shanghai, was called to his door at 1 o'clock Friday morning and shot through the heart by an unknown person.

Mrs. Mary Williams was killed by a passenger train near Forest, O.

PERMANENT EMBASSY.

The Pope Establishes One in the United States.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 1.—Statements have been published from time to time in the United States and abroad in relation to the establishment in this country of a permanent legation representing the church of Rome in matters ecclesiastical, but official confirmation of them up to this time has never been obtained.

Some days ago Pope Leo notified Archbishop Satolli, the apostolic delegate here, that it was deemed best for the interests of the church that an ambassador of the holy father should permanently reside in the United States, and Mgr. Satolli was given to understand that he would be kept as resident apostolic delegate. Up to the present time no information to the contrary has been sent to him from the vatican.

A reporter for the United Press called at the legation Friday to inquire concerning the report from Rome that at the end of this year Mgr. Satolli would return to the vatican at the request of the pope. After a short consultation with Mgr. Satolli, Dr. Papi, his secretary, made the statement that the delegate had not yet been advised by the pope as to the matter, and, in view of that, did not believe the report was true.

Said Dr. Papi: "Whether Mgr. Satolli be recalled or not, some one will be maintained here in the office he now occupies. This is now a permanent legation, which represents Pope Leo in church the same as the embassy of Italy here represents the political government in diplomatic matters."

After making this important declaration Dr. Papi refused to discuss the matter further. In view of the satisfactory manner in which the differences in the Catholic church in this country have been settled by Mgr. Satolli, and of the good feeling that generally prevails within the church, it is the opinion here that Mgr. Satolli will not be recalled.

GEN. N. P. BANKS

Dying of Brain Trouble at His Home in Waltham, Mass.

Boston, Sept. 1.—Gen. N. P. Banks is dying at his home in Waltham. The brain trouble which has caused him two years' suffering seems destined to result in his death within a very short time, in fact, it is expected that he will not live through the night. Mrs. Banks and Miss Maud Banks are with him, and his son, Joseph Banks, of New York, has been telegraphed for. Mrs. Paul Sterling, a second daughter, has also been notified.

Gen. Banks, as is well known, has been decidedly feeble mentally for more than two years. The first of this summer the malady seemed to get a firmer grip on his intellect, and his family took him to Deer Isle, Me., thinking that a change of scene and air might help him. He showed no signs of improvement, however, and about ten days ago, as he was much worse, he was brought home. His decline continuing, he was taken to the McLean hospital in Somerville, the first of the week, but within a few days he had so far succumbed to the disease of the mind that he no longer recognized the members of his family. Friday he was taken from the hospital to his home.

Jewish Tailors Strike.

NEW YORK, Sept. 1.—At sundown Friday night the 1,038 Hebrew tailors of Williamsburg, including two hundred women, began a strike to relieve themselves from what they call the "task work" imposed upon them by their employers, the contractors. The strikers say they will have the moral support of thirty thousand tailors of Brooklyn, Jersey City and Philadelphia. They say that business is booming now in their particular line and in the long run they are bound to succeed.

Gov. Waite Acquitted.

DENVER, Col., Sept. 1.—Gov. Waite took the witness stand in his own defense Friday morning and vigorously denied any connection with the conspiracy. The governor asked no favors of the commissioner, but would abide his decision. Commissioner Hinsdale held the defendants, Dwyer, Mullins and Armstrong, to the grand jury in $500. Gov. Waite was discharged.

Ex-Army Officer Kills Himself.

GLASGOW, Sept. 1.—James Johnston, an ex-captain of the United States army, committed suicide in this city Friday by shooting himself with a revolver. Capt. Johnston was booked to sail on the steamship State of Nebraska, which departed Friday.

Insurance Agent Missing.

COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 1.—It leaked out Friday that John F. Elder, agent here of the Metropolitan Insurance Co., has been mysteriously absent for about two weeks. The officials of the company are very reticent.

Albert Heed Arrested.

COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 1.—United States Marshal Henry Bohl and Post Office Inspector C. L. Wayland arrived here Friday night with Albert Heed, who was arrested Friday at Flushing, O., as an embezzling postmaster in Idaho.

Horrible Charge.

MARTINSVILLE, Ind., Sept. 1.—James Riddle, arrested here while asleep, is charged with incest by his 14-year-old daughter. Riddle was whipped by a white caps a month ago because of a suspicion of this.

Fortifying Against the Dutch.

AMSTERDAM, Sept. 1.—The Lombok natives are fortifying Mataram, the capital of the island, and are also strengthening the force of men holding the place. Two Englishmen have been arrested at Ampanan.

Receipts and Expenditures for August.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 1.—In round numbers the receipts of the treasury for August were $40,000,000, and expenditures $31,500,000.

Free From Plague.

HONO KONO, Sept. 1.—This city has been declared free from the plague.
